

Presentations

WeldWAITS staff provides an average of 500 presentations yearly, reaching over 2500 parents and teens in a wide variety of settings. Presentations are given in 17 schools to middle and high school students, as well as transitional programs for developmentally delayed students, foster homes, Boys and Girls Clubs, programs for at risk youth, faith based organizations, and parenting or grand parenting groups. Presentations are tailored to meet the needs of each audience and are medically accurate, culturally and developmentally relevant, and based on several best practice models. While sexual risk avoidance is the underlying theme of all presentations, topics may include:

- Puberty
- Media navigation
- Healthy friendships
- Communication skills
- Self image
- Difference between love and lust
- Boundary setting
- Refusal Skills
- Steps of dating and intimacy
- Future planning
- Healthy vs. unhealthy relationships
- STDs
- Contraception
- Consequences of teen sex
